EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Bruce Troxell on April 1, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows: In claim 9, line 15, delete "standby power supply" and replace it with "power supply".

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Referring to claim 9, the prior art does not teach or reasonably suggest the LED displaying light includes a light for the standby power source and a light for power output; a light for the standby power supply is green and the light for the power supply is yellow; the color of the light changes according to an output voltage of the standby power source, power supply, and predetermined signals.

Referring to claim 11, the prior art does not teach or reasonably suggest that the LED displaying light is extinguished representing no auxiliary power source and standby power source, including conditions of: no AC input; no fault in power wire; and when output load being larger than 130%-160%, the detector informing to interrupt power supply; and improper load being removed, and the power being restored.
